

VASCULAR PLANTS OF THE NORTH JETTY CONSTRUCTION SITE
OREGON INLET

Survey August, 1977, By Mrs. Sherrie Storm, Instructor,
Youth Conservation Corps, Cape Hatteras National Seashore

Oregon Inlet - Enclosed Developing Marsh Area Vegetation Survey List.

I. North Side of Area, between Ramp 2 and low tide line of first tributary:

Iva imbricata
Solidage sempervirens (sea-side goldenrod)
Myrica pennsylvanica
Baccharis halimifolia
Rhus radicans
Salicornia europaea
Juncus roemerianus
Sabatia stellaris
Spartina alterniflora
Spartina patens
Seirpus americanus
Scirpus robustus
Distychlis spicata
Uniola paniculata
Panicum amœrum
Oenothera humifusa (evening primrose)
Hydrocotyle bonariensis (pennywort)
Aster
Borrichia frutescens
Amophila breviligulata (American Beach Grass)
Ambrosia artemisiifolia (Ragweed)
Ipomoea sagittata (Morning Glory)
Andropogon virginicus Brown Sedge
Fimbristylis Spadicea
Muhlenbergia capillaris
Rubus flagillaris
Euphorbia setifolia
Lepidium virginicum
Spiranthes vernalis (Ladies Tresses)
Prunus Serotina (Black Cherry)
Dichromena Latifolia (White Star Sedge)
Kosteletzkya virginica (Mallow)

II. Low Marsh Zone of Oregon Inlet.

Sabatia (white)
Triglochin striata (Arrowgrass)
Spergularia marina
Passiflora incarnata (Passion flower)
Limonium carolinianum (Sea Lavender)
Dicerandra lineariflora
Atriplex arenaria
Eleocharis obtusa (Spike rushes)
Eleocharis "
Eleocharis "
Iva frutescens
Eupatorium capillifolium
Salsola Kali (Russian thistle)
Chondropsora rudata (Rayless Goldenrod)
Solidago
Aster tenuifolius
Strophostyles umbellata