To: Bill Hansen

From: Bill Shook

I was preparing a letter to the SWCRB to transfer the Martinelli water rights after having talked to Mr. Parkenson. I needed to obtain a clean copy of the deed to enclose as proof of transfer of ownership. When I looked in the Martinelli file I found the attached letter (Feb. 18, 1994) from the SWRCB indicating that they were in the process of changing their ownership records!!!!

I had never seen this piece of correspondence before and know nothing about the issue of the water tank. The SWCRB reference No. (342:BHP:21736) is the same as that on their letter to Martinelli dated Feb. 9, 1994.

What gives? Do you know anything about this? I need to look into the water tank issue, but I would gather since the license number is the same, that we will not have to do anything further. It is curious that Mr. Parkenson didn't mention this to me when I spoke with him on the telephone.

It is late Friday, but I will be in the office Monday except for a meeting between 10:00 and noon if you would like to call..

Dear Patricia:

LICENSE 9051 (APPLICATION 21736) UNNAMED STREAM TRIBUTARY TO TOMALES BAY IN MARIN COUNTY

On January 25, 1994 I talked to you regarding your mother's recent REPORT OF LICENSEE submitted to the State Water Resources Control Board. Therein, I response to the statement "THE PROJECT HAS BEEN ABANDONED AND I REQUEST REVOCATION OF THE LICENSE:" the "YES" box has been checked. You informed me that the property had been sold, but that you have a 25 year lease on the property. This raises a number of issues, e.g. was the water right conveyed with the property? Should the "buyer" hold title to the water right? Who will act as the agent for the water right?

To help address this matter I enclose herein the following:

1. A new Report of Licensee;
2. A copy of the license;
3. A map and photograph of the pond (from the inspection report); and
4. An agent assignment form.

Please determine what should be done to protect this water right and return the materials to Bert Parkinson, 342:BHP:27390, Division of Water Rights, P.O.
Box 2000, Sacramento, CA 95812-2000.

If I can be of further assistance, please write or telephone me at the above number.

Sincerely,
