As a matter of law the Court finds that each of the parties hereto are entitled to be decreed the several amounts of water herein found to have been appropriated by them respectively, as of the date hereof found by the Court, and that each and every party hereto should be enjoined by the decree herein from in any manner interfering with the ditches, dams, flumes of headgates or any other party hereto, or from using any of the waters of said Reese Creek or its tributaries which other parties hereto are entitled to by right of prior appropriation as found herein.

That all of the parties hereto should be enjoined by the decree herein from in any wise wasting the waters of said creek or its tributaries, or from diverting at any time more water than is reasonably necessary for the use to which it is applied or to irrigate the lands of such party actually requiring irrigation at the time of diverting the same.

It is further ordered that the sheriff's and the clerk's fees be equally divided between all of the plaintiffs and defendants to this action, and that each party pay their own witness fees and that a decree be drawn in accordance herewith.

Dated _____, 1905

Judge.

Wherefore, by reason of the law and the premises aforesaid, it is by the Court ordered, adjudged and decreed:

That the plaintiff, J. H. Pisor, is the owner, in possession and entitled to the possession of the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter (SW $\frac{1}{4}$ SW $\frac{1}{4}$) and lots four (4), five (5), eight (8), nine (9) and ten (10) of Section five (5) Township nine (9) South, Range eight (8) East, Montana Principal Meridian; and that he and his predecessors in interest have been in the possession and entitled to the possession of the same since prior to the 1st. day of June, 1887; that on said last mentioned date the predecessors in interest of the plaintiff diverted water from Saw Mill Creek, a branch of Reese Creek for the irrigation of said lands to the amount of fifty (50) inches, equivalent to a flow of one and one-fourth (1 $\frac{1}{4}$) cubic feet per second of time; and that thereafter, to wit: on the 1st day of June, 1887, the predecessors in interest of the plaintiff diverted waters from Reese Creek for the necessary irrigation of said lands to an additional amount of fifty (50) inches, equivalent to a flow of one and one-fourth (1 $\frac{1}{4}$) cubic feet of water per second of time, making a total appropriation of water for the irrigation of said lands prior to the 1st day of June 1887, by the predecessors in interest of the plaintiff J. H. Pisor equal to 100 inches, equivalent to a flow of two and one-half (2 $\frac{1}{2}$) cubic feet per second of time, which amount has been continuously used upon said land for the irrigation thereof by the plaintiff and his predecessors in interest down to the date of this trial, and that the plaintiff is now the owner and entitled to the use thereof;

It is further adjudged and decreed, that the plaintiff shall have the right to divert the amount of water flowing in said Saw Mill Creek to which he is entitled as above, from the bed of Reese Creek at any point in said Reese creek below the place where said Saw Mill creek flows into said Reese creek; and that if at any time the flow of water in said Saw Mill Creek, shall not amount to 50 inches of water, or a flow of $1\frac{1}{2}$ cubic feet per second of time, said plaintiff shall be entitled to divert from Reese creek the difference between 50 inches, or a flow of $1\frac{1}{2}$ cubic feet per second of time, and the amount flowing in said Saw Mill Creek, in addition to the said amount of 50 inches, or a flow of $1\frac{1}{2}$ cubic feet per second of time to which the plaintiff is entitled as of June 1, 1887; and such additional amount as last above decreed shall be considered as right of the plaintiff to the waters of said Reese creek as of date June 1, 1887.

That heretofore, to-wit: on the respective dates and times hereinafter mentioned, the defendant, George W. Reese, and his predecessor in interest, were the owners of the following described lands in Park County, Montana, to-wit: Lots 3, 4, 6, and 7, and the SE $1/4$ of the SW $1/4$ of Section 8, township 9 South, range 8 East, and that the said defendant made an appropriation of water from the said Reese Creek, for the necessary irrigation of said land, as of the dates and of the amount following, to-wit:

120 inches or a flow equivalent to 3 cubic feet per second of time, on May 1st., 1878,; and that afterwards, to-wit: on the 17th day of March, 1903, the said defendant George W. Reese, did, for a certain consideration, sell, assign, transfer and set over unto one James O. Murphy, 40 inches, equivalent to a flow of 1 cubic foot per second of time, of saidwater appropriated as aforesaid.

That heretofore, to-wit: on the respective dates and times hereinafter mentioned, the predecessor in interest of the defendant, James O. Murphy, was the owner of the following described land in Park County, Montana, to-wit: Lots 3, 4, 6 and 7 of section 8, township 9 south, range 8 east, (containing about 45 acres of land), and that the predecessor in interest of this defendant made an appropriation of water from said Reese Creek for the necessary irrigation of said land, and that on the 17th day of March, 1903, the predecessor in interest of this defendant, to-wit: George W. Reese, sold, conveyed and confirmed unto this defendant 40 inches of the waters of Reese Creek, appropriated by him on the 1st day of May, 1878, and that he is now the owner of said above described land together with said water.

That, heretofore, to-wit: on the respective dates and times hereinafter mentioned, the defendant James O. Murphy, and his predecessors in interest, were the owners of the following land in Park County, Montana to-wit: Lot 5 in section 8, township 9 south, range 8 east, and that the said defendant, and his predecessors in interest, made an appropriation of water from said Reese Creek for the necessary irrigation of said land, as of the dates and in the amount following, to-wit:

20 inches, or a flow equivalent to $1/2$ of 1 cubic foot per second of time, on June 1st. 1892.

That heretofore, to-wit: on the respective dates and times herein-after mentioned, the defendant, S. S. Errett, and his predecessors in interest, were the owners of a tract of land comprising 15 acres, lying South of the Northern Pacific Railway Company's right of way, and adjoining Lot 5, section 8, township 9 south, range 8 east, Park County, Montana; and that the said defendant, and his predecessors in interest made an appropriation of water from said Reese Creek for the necessary irrigation of said tract of land, as of the date and in the amount following to-wit:

20 inches, or a flow equivalent to $1/2$ of 1 cubic feet per second of time, on June 1st. 1887.

That heretofore, to-wit: on the respective dates and times hereinafter mentioned, the defendant, M. E. Pisor, and her predecessor in interest, were the owners of the following land in Park County, Montana, to-wit: Lot 2, and the W $1/2$ of the NW $1/4$, and the NW $1/4$ of the SW $1/4$ township 9 south, range 8 east, excepting therefrom a tract of land comprising 15 acres, more or less, lying South the the Northern Pacific Railway Company's right of way, which said tract of land had been sold to one S. S. Errett, and that said defendant and her predecessors in interest made an appropriation of the waters of Reese Creek for the necessary irrigation of said land, as of the date and in the amount following, to-wit:

100 inches, equivalent to a flow of $2 \frac{1}{2}$ cubic feet per second of time, on June 1st., 1887.

That heretofore, to-wit: on the respective dates and times hereinafter mentioned, the defendant, Silas McMinn, and his predecessors in interest were the owners of the following land in Park County, Montana, to-wit: the W 1/2 of the NW 1/4 of section 8, township 9 south, range 8 east, and that the said defendant, and his predecessor in interest, made an appropriation of water from said Reese Creek for the necessary irrigation of said land, as of the date and in the amount following, to-wit:

30 inches, equivalent to a flow of $3/4$ of 1 cubic foot per second of time, on November 1st., 1892.

And the Court further finds that since the filing of the separate answer of the executors of the last will and testament of Hugo J. Hoppe, deceased, the defendant, Walter M. Hoppe, has purchased the interests of all of the heirs of said decedant in the real estate described in said separate answer, and that the said Walter M. Hoppe is now the owner and in possession of the W 1/2 of the SW 1/4, and Lots 2,3, and 6 in section 16 and also the E 1/2 of the NE 1/4 of section 17 in township 9 south, range 8 east, in Park County, Montana; and that the predecessors in interest of the said Hoppe, on the 15th. day of June, 1889, appropriated 100 inches or a flow of $2\frac{1}{2}$ cubic feet per second of time, of the waters of Reese Creek, for the necessary irrigation of said land; and that the defendant, Walter M. Hoppe, is now the owner and holder thereof, and entitled to the use and enjoyment of the same.

And the Court doth further find, that since the commencement of this action, the defendants, Sarah E. Gassert, administratrix of the estate of Harry Gassert, deceased, and Maude E. Strong, sold and transferred to the defendants, Walter M. Hoppe, and Frank H. Halem the following real estate in Park County, Montana, to-wit: the NE 1/4 of section 20, and the NW 1/4 of the NW 1/4 of section 21, and the E 1/2 of the SE 1/4 of section 17; and that the said defendants, Walter M. Hoppe and Frank Halem, are now the owners and entitled to the possession of the said land; and that their predecessors in interest, on the 15th. day of June, 1889, appropriated for the necessary irrigation of said land 100 inches, equivalent to a flow of $2\frac{1}{2}$ ~~1/4~~ cubic feet per second of time, of the waters of Reese Creek, and that the said defendants are now the owners of said water and entitled to the use and enjoyment of the same.

And the Court doth further find that the Montana Coal and Coke Company is a corporation, and is the owner of and in possession of the NE 1/4 of the NE 1/4 of Lot 1, and the S 1/4 of the NE 1/4 and all of the S 1/2, and the SE 1/4 of the NW 1/4 of section 6, township 9 south, range 8 east, in Park County, Montana, upon which tract of land is situated the town of Electric or Horr, Montana, together with the coke ovens and other buildings and appliances connected with the making of coke at Electric, Montana:

That heretofore, to-wit: on the 1st. day of July, 1884, the predecessor in interest of said defendant, diverted and appropriated 120 inches, or a flow equivalent ~~to~~ to 3 cubic feet of the waters of Reese Creek, to be used in connection with the said coking plant and townsite, and for furnishing power, and for washing coal, and for other purposes in connection with the manufacture of coke and the washing of coal, and also for the purpose of supplying the tenants and the employees of the defendant, residing in the town of Electric, or Horr, Montana; and that the said defendant is now the owner and holder of said 120 inches of the waters of said Reese Creek, and entitled to the use and enjoyment thereof.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that each and every of the parties hereto, their agents, employees, attorneys, heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, are hereby enjoined from in any manner interfering with the ditches, dams, flumes, head-gates or other means of diversion of the other parties hereto, or from using any of the waters of Reese Creek, or the tributaries thereof which such other parties hereto are entitled to by right of prior appropriation as found herein;

That all of the parties hereto, and their successors in interest, are hereby enjoined from in any wise wasting any of the waters of said creek, or from diverting at any time any more of the waters of said creek than is reasonably necessary for the use to which is applied;

And, it is further ordered that the sheriff's fees and clerks fees be paid equally by all of the parties to this suit; and that each party pay his own witness fees.

Done in open Court this 26 day of May, 1905.
