PARKS Magazine is an international publication for the exchange of information on the planning, use and management of the world's national parks and other protected natural and cultural resources.

PARKS Magazine is a pilot project of Parks Canada and the National Park Service of the United States. It is produced in collaboration with FAO, UNEP, UNESCO and the Organization of American States (OAS), and with the cooperation of the Commission on National Parks and Protected Areas (IUCN) and Regional Advisors throughout the world.

PARKS Magazine is issued quarterly in separate editions in English, in French under the title PARCS and in Spanish under the title PARQUES. Controlled distribution of all editions is by mail. For information concerning subscription or publication of material please address:

PARKS printing costs are paid with donated funds. Ideas or viewpoints expressed do not necessarily reflect those of the sponsors, collaborators or advisors.

All material may be reprinted unless it is either protected by copyright or the material has been reprinted in this issue from an identified source publication. In such event no reprints are authorized except upon permission of the copyright holder or the source publication. Reprinted material should bear the author's name and credit to PARKS Magazine should be given. The Editor would appreciate two copies of any material so used.

The English and Spanish editions of PARKS Magazine are published in the United States with the cooperation of the Organization of American States and the Eastern National Park and Monument Association. The French edition is prepared and published in Canada by Parks Canada.

Index of training courses for cultural conservation

The 1977 supplement for the International Card Index on Training in Conservation of Cultural Property is now available for distribution. It contains about 120 photocopied cards giving basic details of course programs in the various fields of conservation. Some of the cards are revisions of cards in the first edition of the Index and others are new listings collected during 1975 and 1976.

Copies can be purchased at the cost of U.S. $4.00 each from the International Centre for Conservation, Via di San Michele 13, Rome 00153, Italy.

The first edition (1975) of the Index is also still available. The boxed set of 200 cards costs $8.00, or $12 if you wish to order the original Index and the supplement together.

This splendid Indian elephant was photographed years ago by E.P. Gee on a forest path in Assam. Reduction of extensive wild country needed to support their prodigious appetites for browse and grass (estimated at about 250 kilograms per day), has resulted in reduced elephant numbers.
