

MRS. L. J. BUNCH
8700 S. RIVER ROAD
ALAMOSA, COLO.
81101

THE CAMERA
IN
The Sunny San Luis Valley
AND ON THE FAMOUS
Baca Land Grant
IN COLORADO

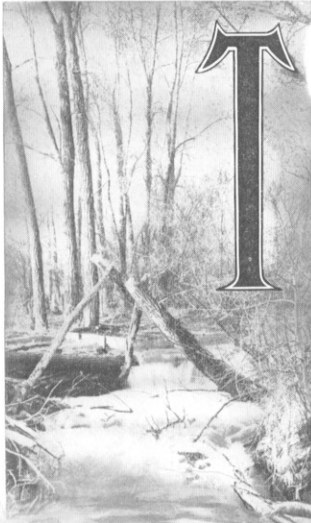

Francis J. Raether
1908
Moffat Colo.

PRESENTED BY

THE BACA GRANT DEVELOPMENT COMPANY
(INCORPORATED)

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO.

COMPANY'S SALES OFFICE: 401-407 Hagerman Building

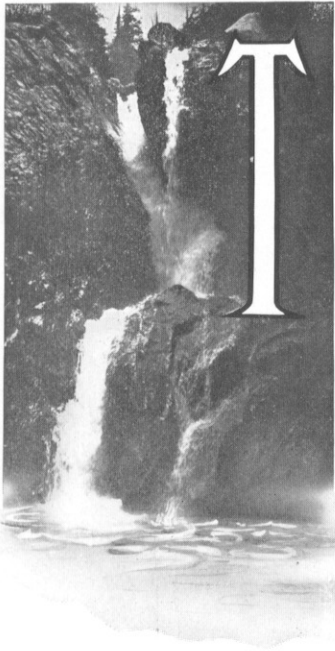

North Crestone Creek

THE BACA GRANT DEVELOPMENT COMPANY

O F F I C E R S

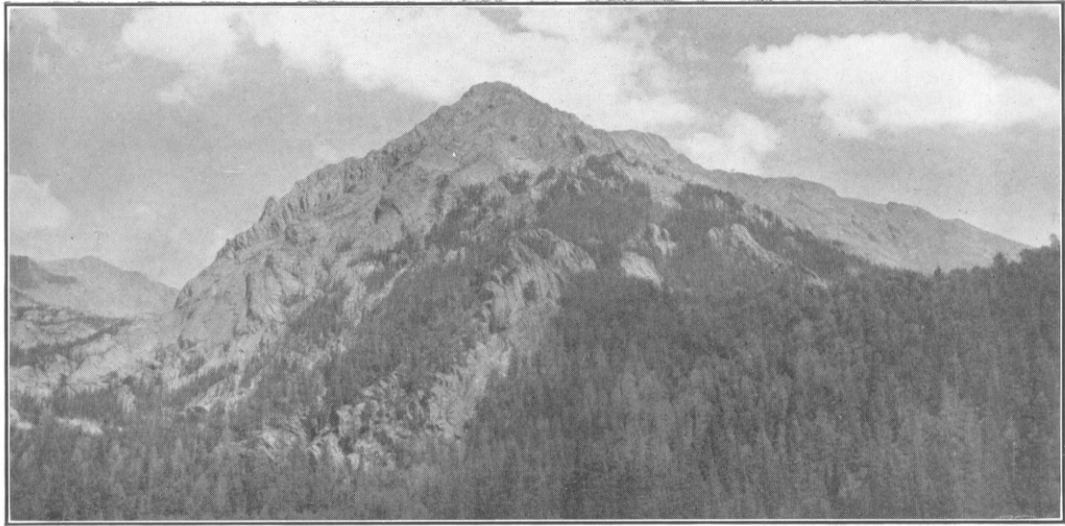

JOSEPH HARRISON, - President
R. HARTER, - - - Secretary
J. B. LIPPINCOTT, - Treasurer

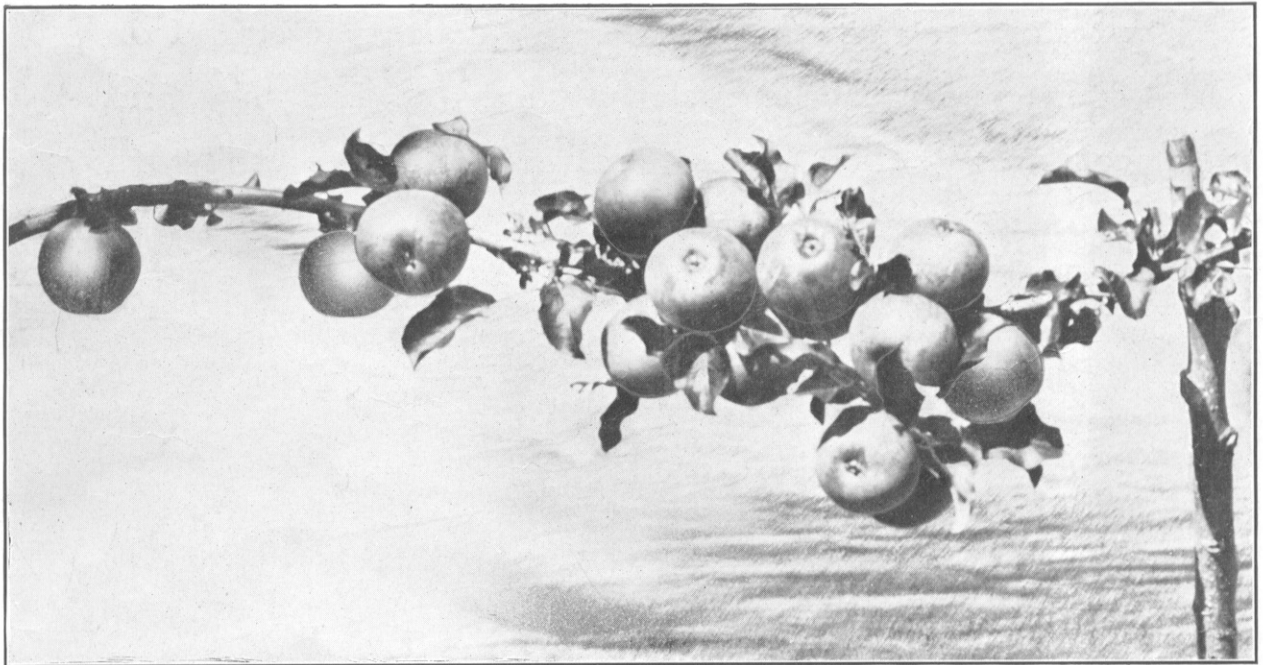

Falls on Cottonwood Creek

THE SAN LUIS VALLEY in Colorado comprises an area of arable lands, approximating 3,100,000 acres--the area of the State of Connecticut--and in presenting you with this Picture Book, containing Actual Views of this fertile Valley, special attention is invited to the many attractive views of the land and products, water and scenery, taken on the famous Luis Maria Baca Grant No. 4. This magnificent body of land is now being sold in small tracts, and on such favorable terms that anyone can buy and easily pay for same--attractive alike to both Homeseeker and Investor.

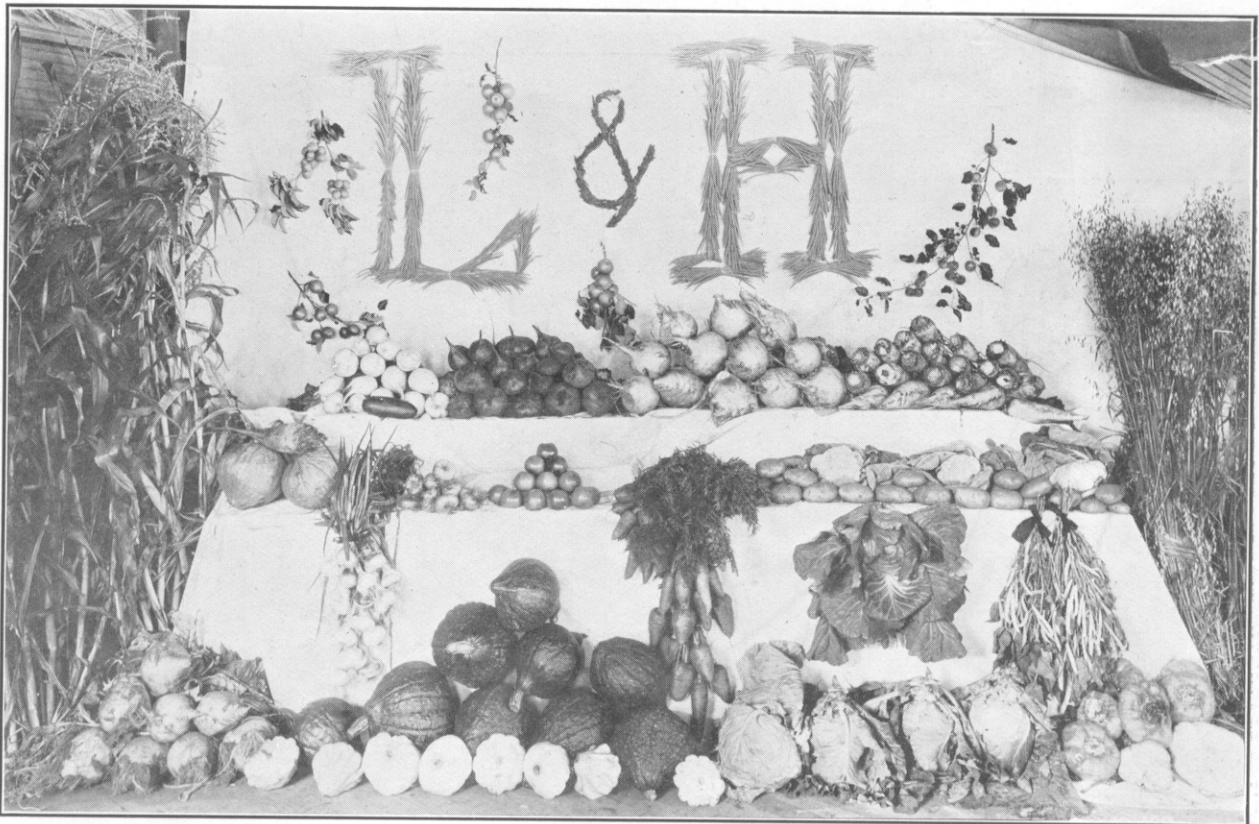

Spruce Timber -- Crestone Peak -- Baca Grant

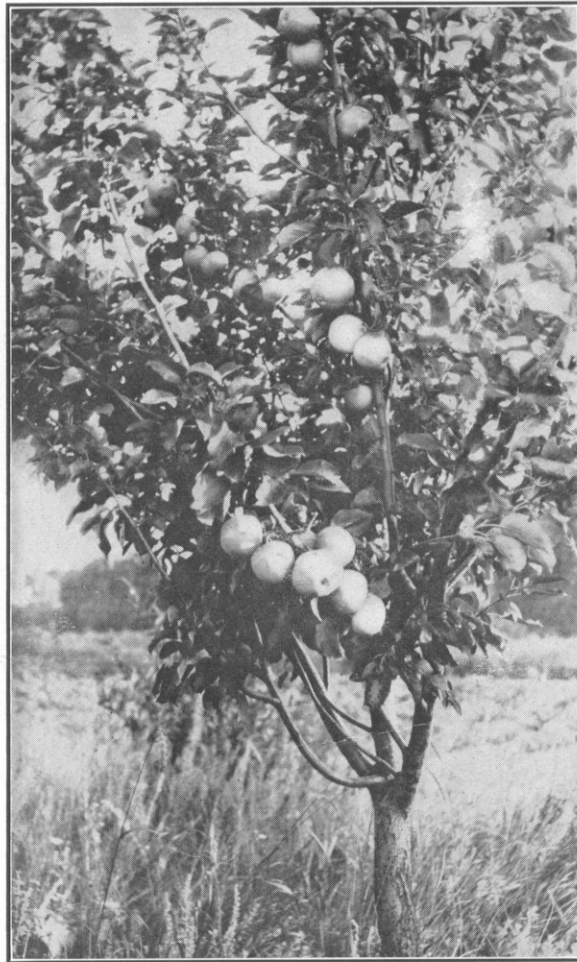

Cluster of Wealthy Standard Apples, from a Baca Grant Orchard, 1908

$26,000 Bungalow on 40 Acre Orchard Tract Adjoining Town of Crestone

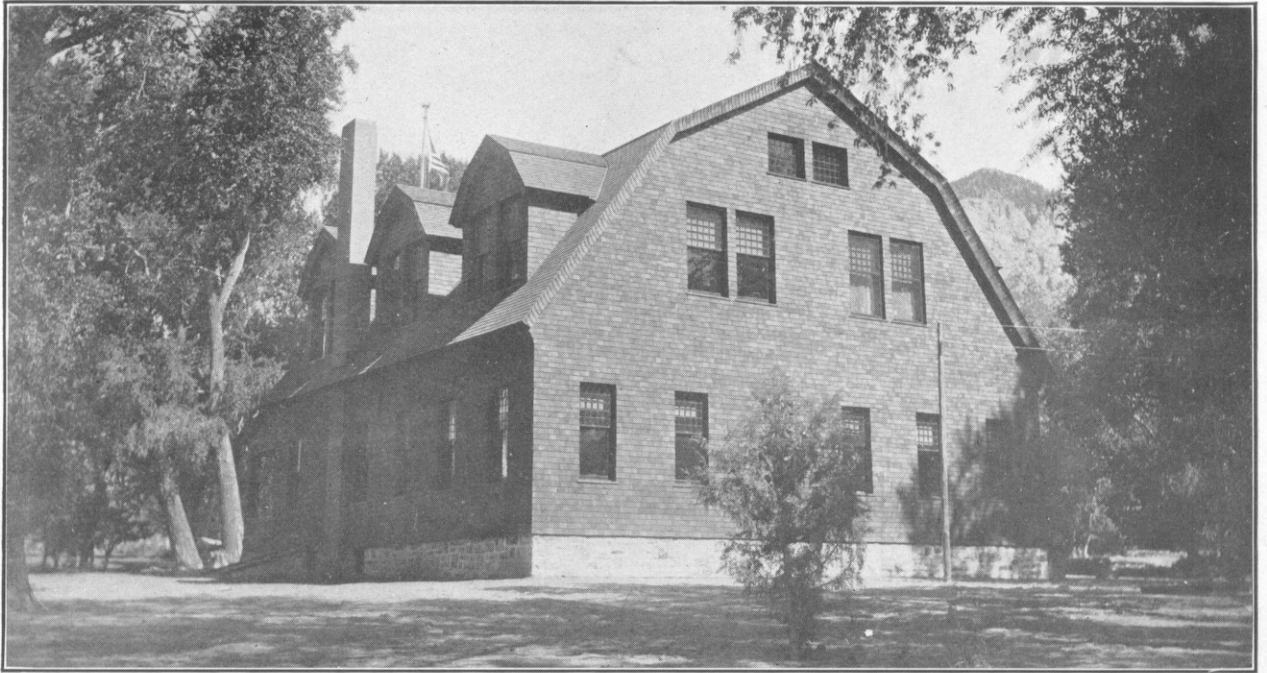

From Crestone Gardens, Baca Grant

Yellow Transparent 5 Year Old Apple Tree,
Hopkins Orchard, Crestone, 1908

Depot and Crestone Creek at Crestone -- Baca Grant

$18,000 Modern Office Building on One of Our Crestone Town Lots

Falls on North Crestone -- Outlet of Lake Crestone

Residence of Frank Sabine, North State Street, Alamosa

State Street, Looking North from Depot

Residence and Office of Dr. Orr

Alamosa High School

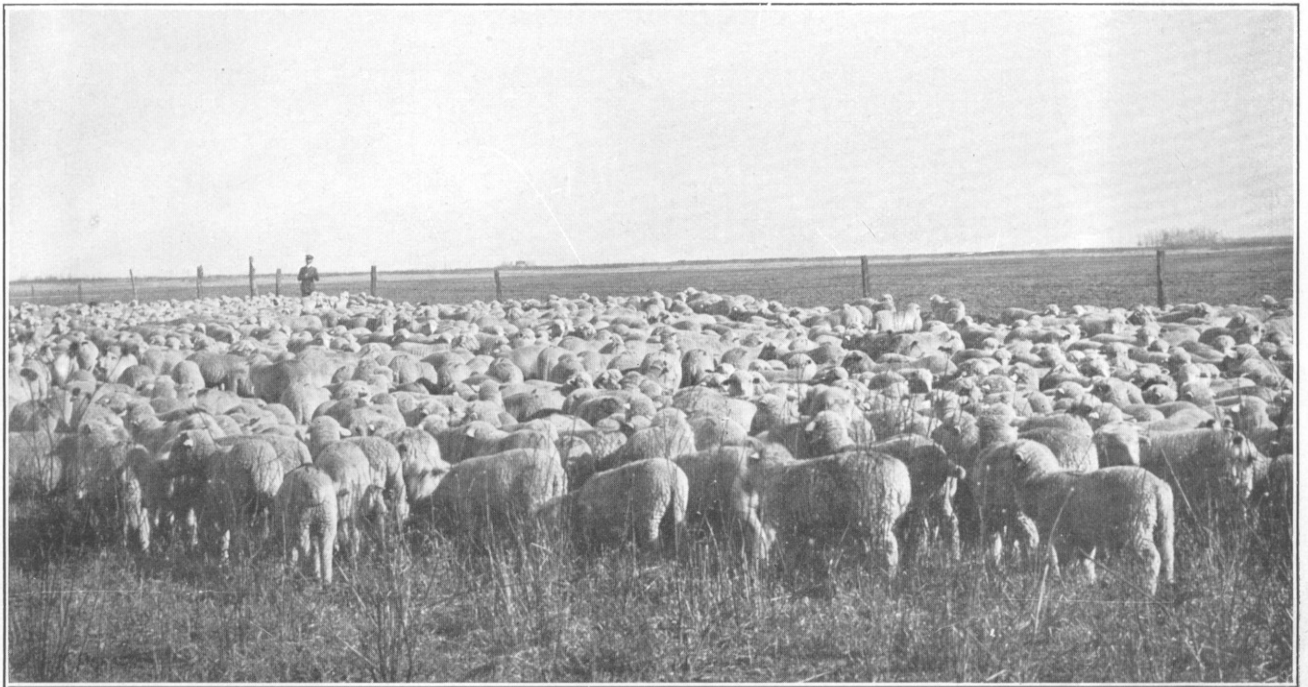

Fifteen Thousand Dollar Ranch Residence of Pat Wilkins, 1½ Miles Southeast of Alamosa

Round House

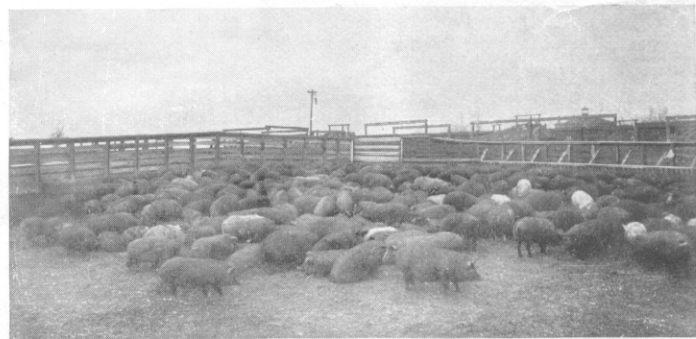

East Alamosa, from Mill

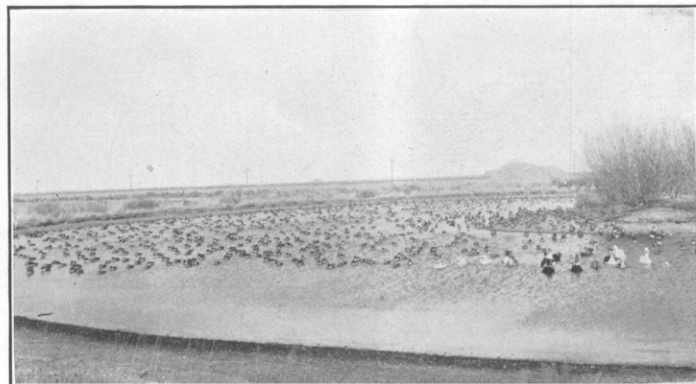

Saguache County Lambs Feeding on Peas

Artesian Well on Dutton Ranch, Near Alamosa, Flowing Sufficient Water to Irrigate 240 Acres of Land

San Luis Valley Pea-Fed Hogs in Alamosa Stockyards. Shipment of 700 to San Francisco, California

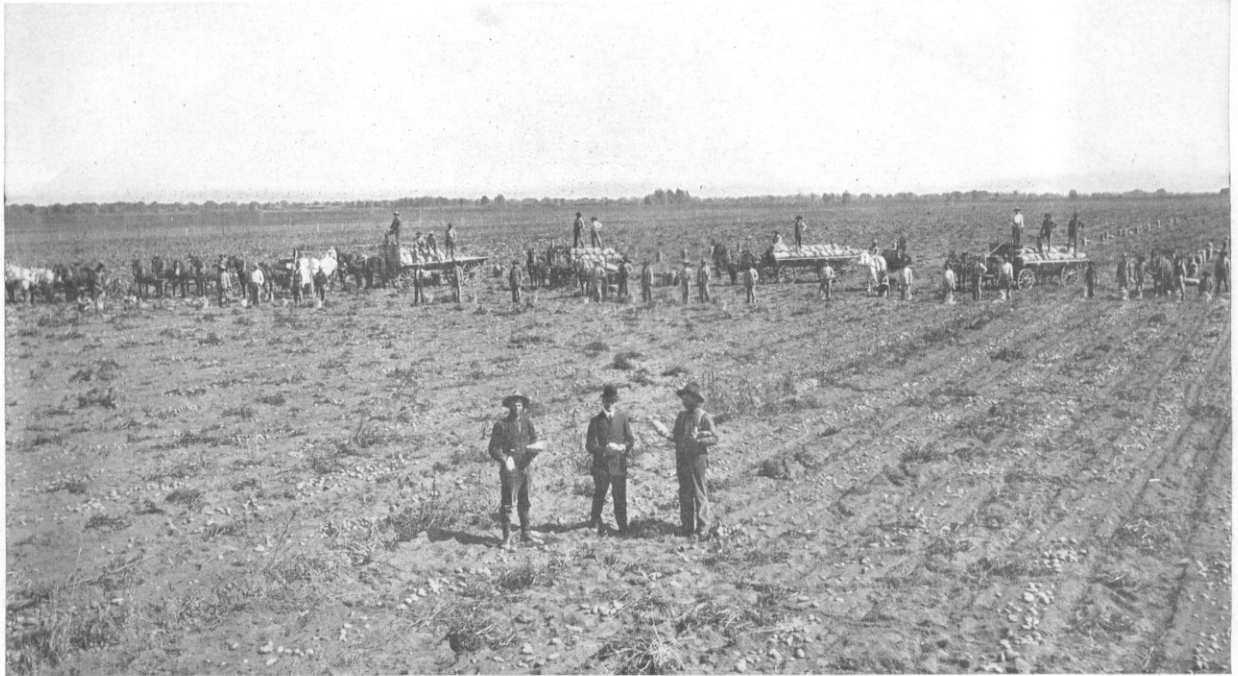

Artesian Well Reservoir--from 3,000 to 7,000 Wild Ducks Winter Here

Potato Harvest in the San Luis Valley -- Scene I

Grass Along Dead Man's Creek -- Baca Grant No. 4

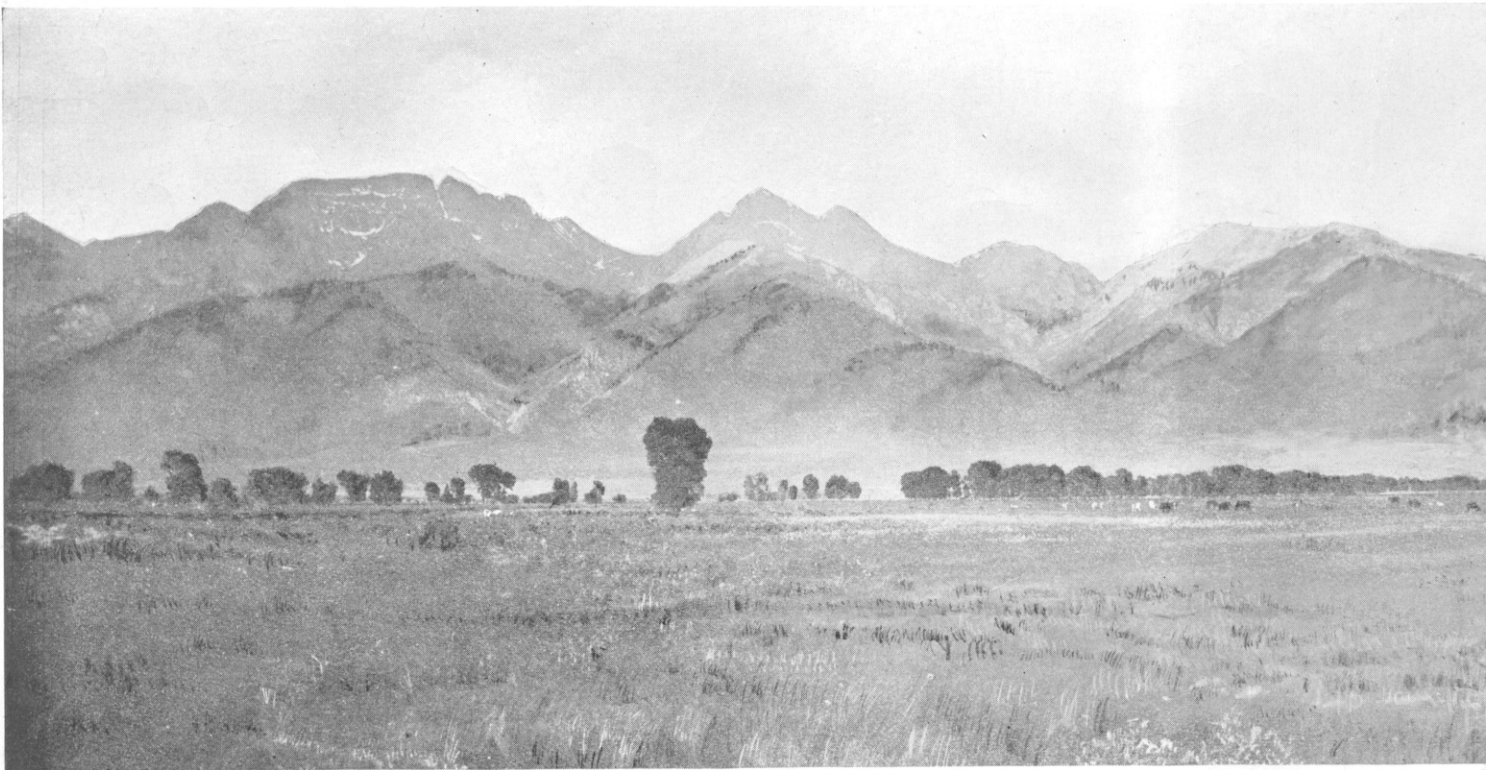

Potato Harvest in the San Luis Valley -- Scene II

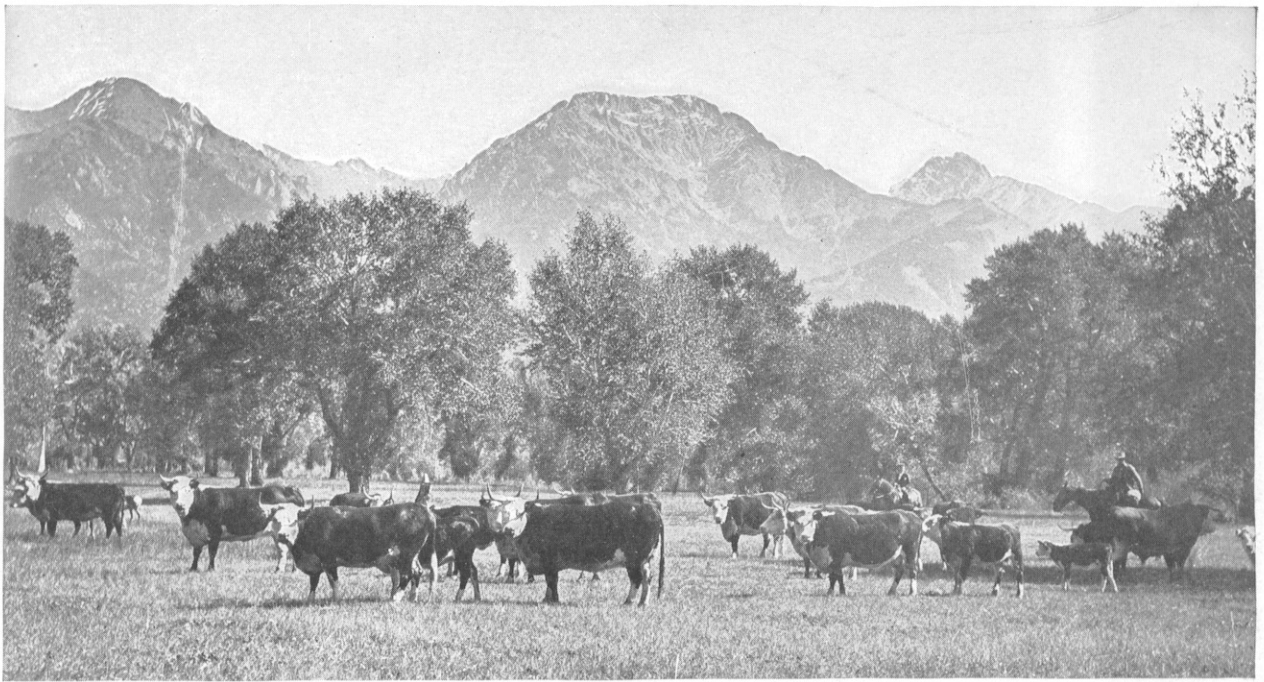

Grass Along Cottonwood Creek -- Baca Grant No. 4

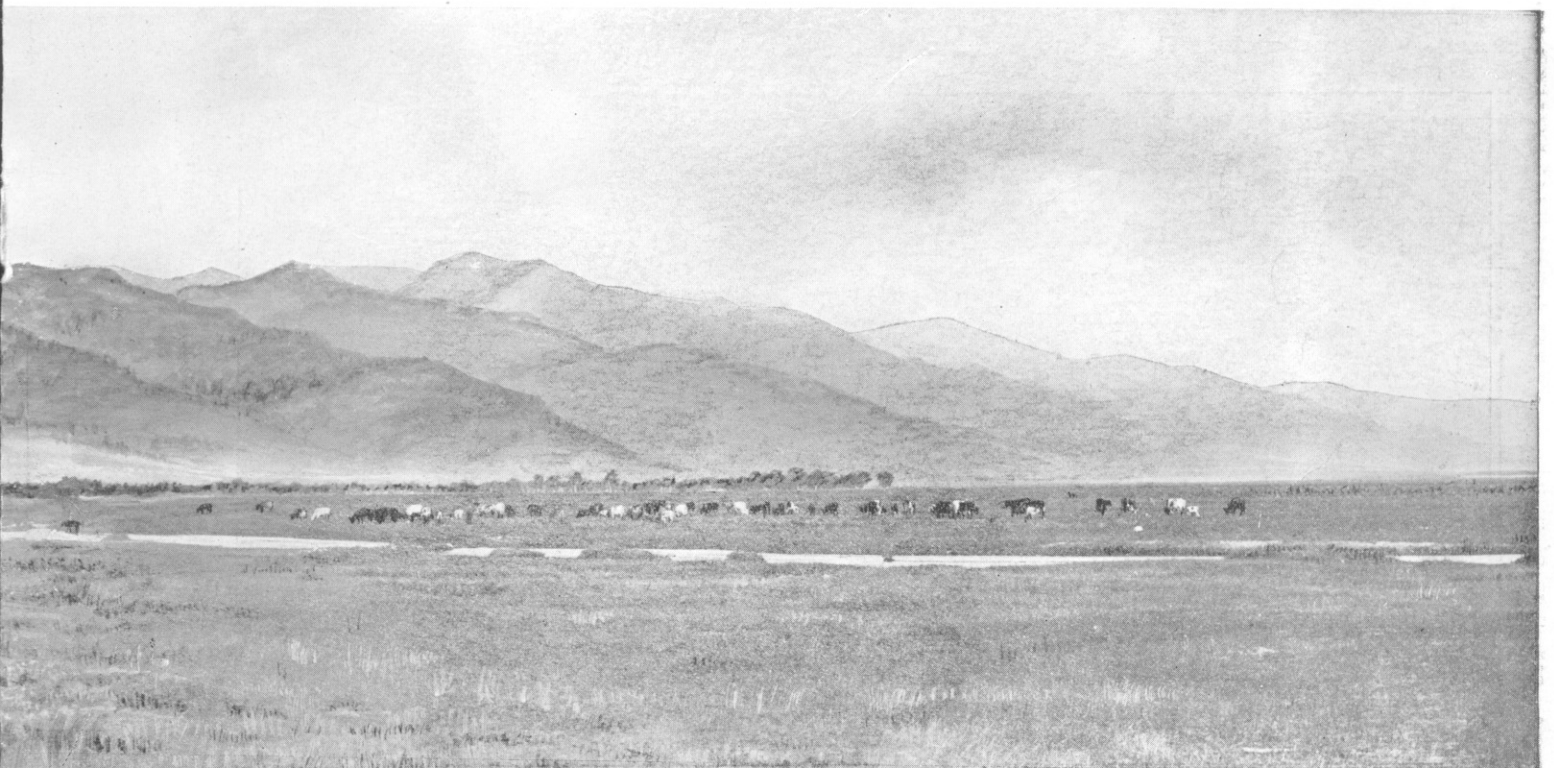

Home Ranch -- Baca Grant -- On One of Our 20-Acre Irrigated Farms

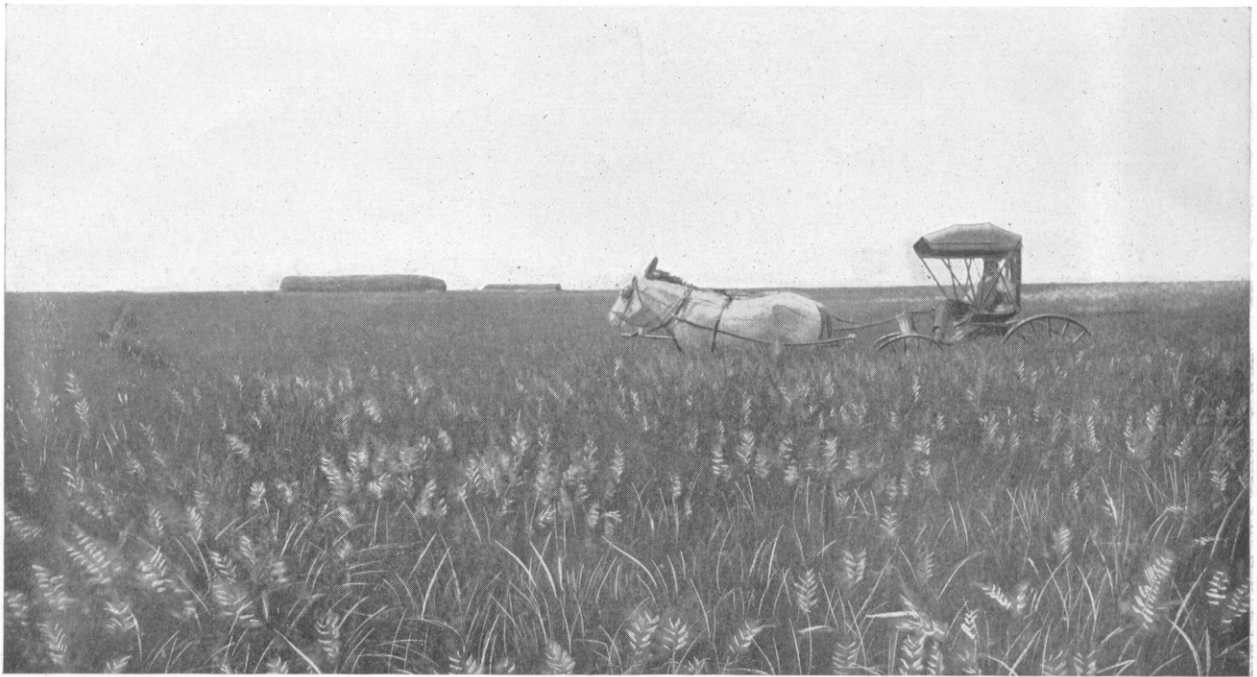

Birds-Eye

A Few High-Bred Cattle in One of the Many Beautiful Groves on Baca Grant

--Baca Grant

Grass Along Dead Man's Creek -- Baca Grant No. 4

Grass Along Sand Creek -- Baca Grant No. 4

Grass Along Willow Creek -- Baca Grant No. 4

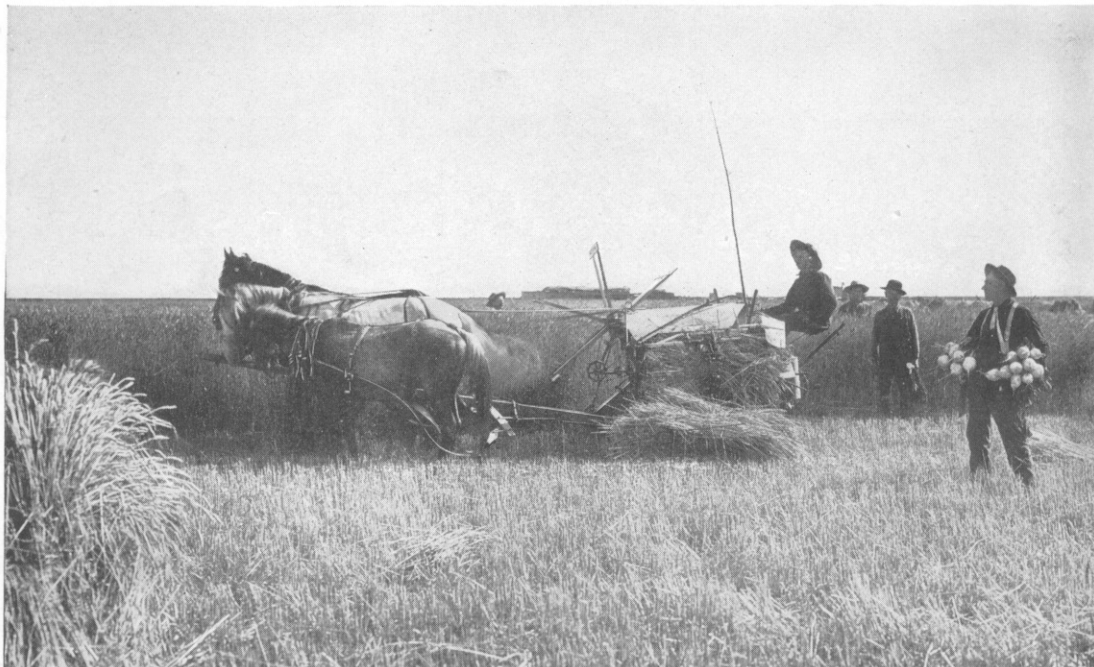

Cutting Wheat -- San Luis Valley, Colorado

The Way Apples Grew on Baca Grant, 1908

Five-year-old Wealthy Standard Apple Tree. Crestone, 1908

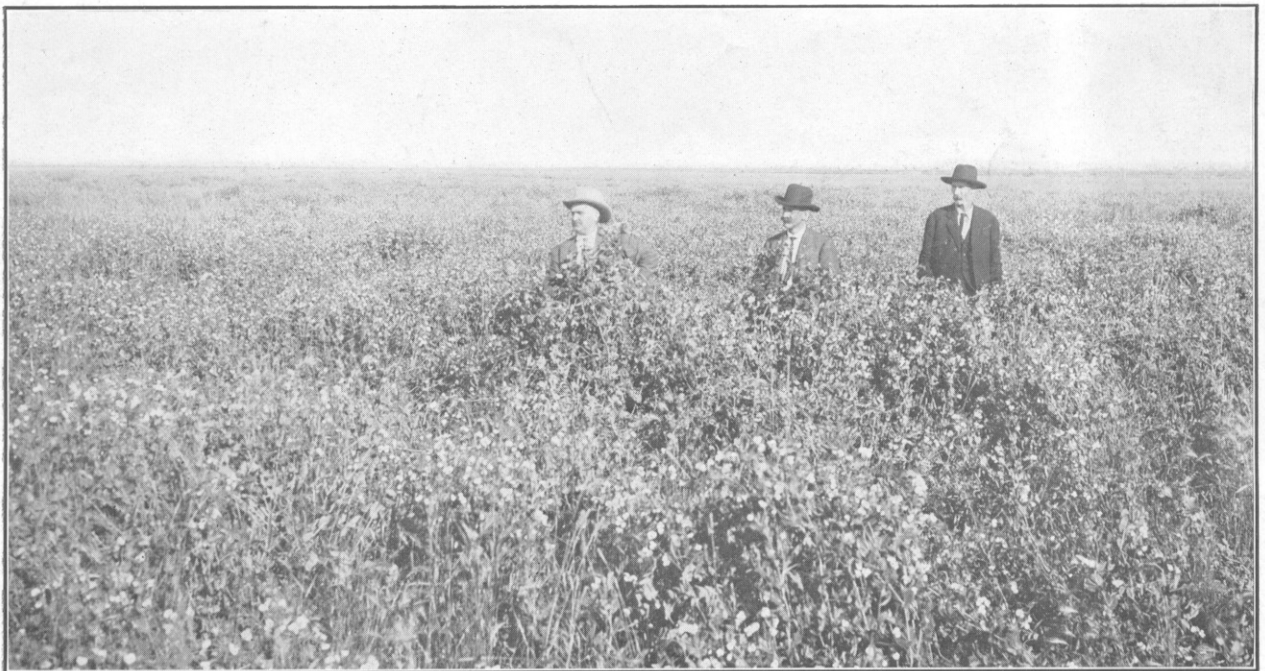

Harvest in the San Luis Valley

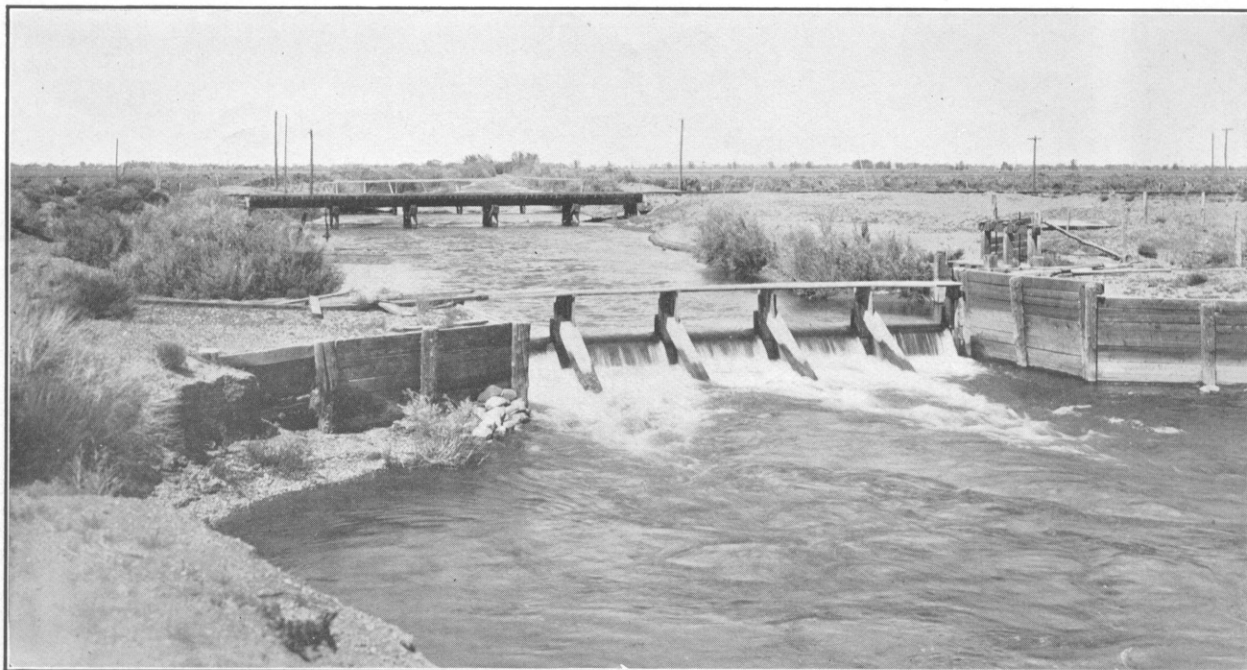

Sierra Blanca, from North Bridge, Alamosa

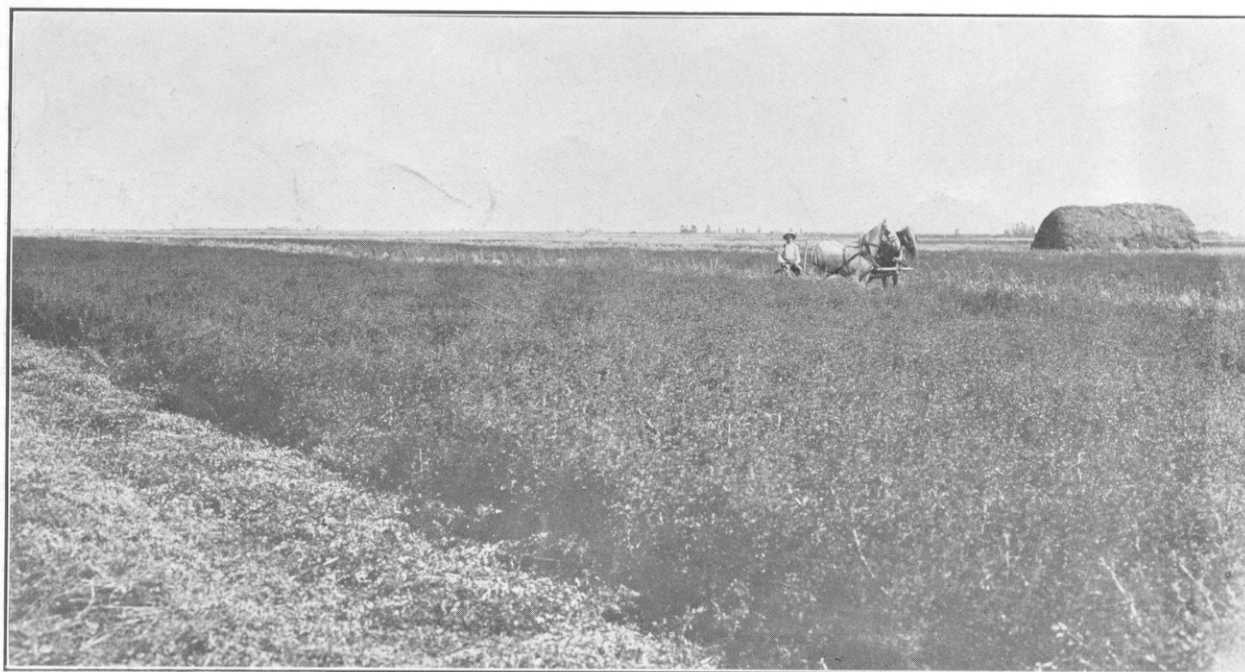

Crestone Lake

Field Peas, San Luis Valley

Irrigating Ditch, San Luis Valley

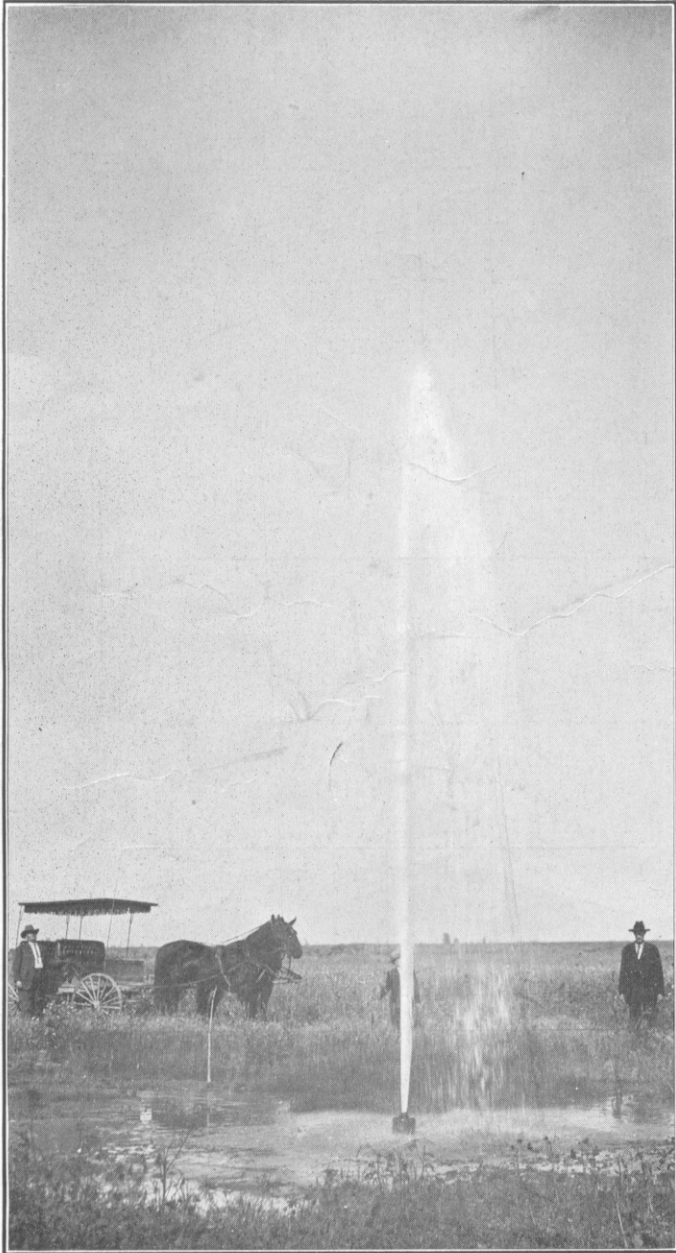

One of the Many Fine Alfalfa Fields, San Luis Valley

Good Roads

Another View of Bungalow, Showing Orchard

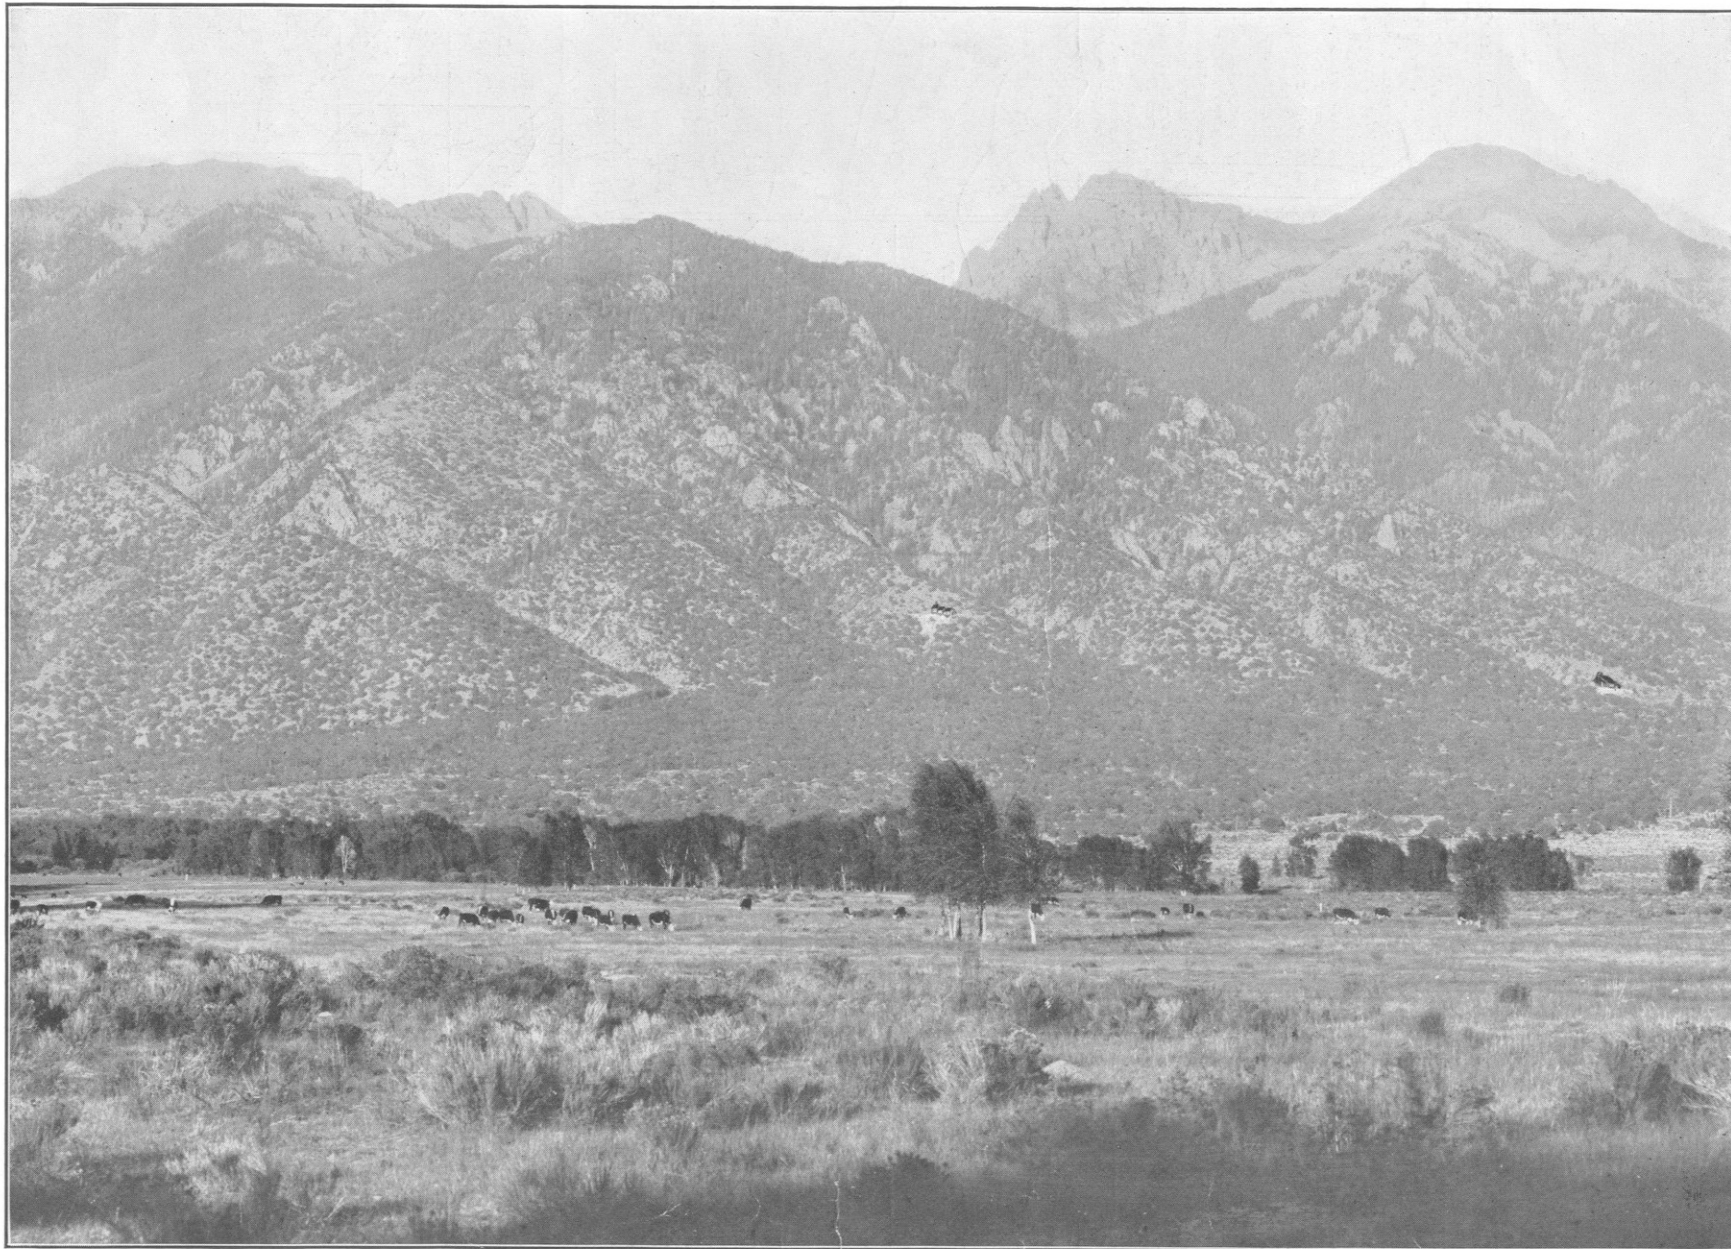

Another Artesian Well. This Well was Put Down for $150.00

San Luis Valley Potatoes, Beets and Cabbages, Showing Comparative Size

Jesse Price Frank Winget Leona Idam Mable Staples?

View of the Sangre de Cristo Range, Showing Some of the Mining Properties on the Baca Grant

