

Conservation Directory Available

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Montana Fish and Wildlife Management Assistance Office, has compiled a national directory of Native American Conservation Departments. Each listing is of an active tribal conservation program. A resource such as this may be useful to many parks and other land managers in establishing contact with tribal liaisons regarding conservation issues and goals on adjacent federal and tribal lands. Contact Joe

Early at (406) 585-9010 in Bozeman, Montana, for a free copy.