

MEETINGS OF INTEREST

1985

April 27-28, NEW YORK STATE FOREST PRESERVE CENTENNIAL SYMPOSIUM, marking the 100th anniversary of establishment of the Forest Preserve, which encompasses 3 million acres of wild forest land in the Adirondack and Catskill Mountain regions of New York, to be held at Union College in Schenectady. Co-sponsors are the Adirondack Mountain Club and the Adirondack Research Center. Contact: NYS Forest Preserve Centennial Symposium, c/o ADK/ARC Organizing Committee, 172 Ridge St., Glens Falls, NY 12801.

April 30 - May 2, GRIZZLY BEAR SYMPOSIUM, to provide a forum where recent information can be presented and made available to managers. Proceedings will be published. Contact Glen Contreras, USFS, 324 25th St., Ogden, UT 84401, 801/625-5664.

June 7-9, ANNUAL MEETING AND SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE OF THE GREATER YELLOWSTONE COALITION, at Lake Hotel, Yellowstone NP. Contact: Bob Anderson, P.O. Box 1874, Bozeman, MT 59771, 406/586-1593.

July 23-26, NATIONAL WILDERNESS RESEARCH CONFERENCE, an interdisciplinary meeting at Colorado State University, Fort Collins, to integrate and interpret what has been learned by the scientific community related to wilderness resources and their human uses. Topical areas included are air, water, vegetation and soils, fish and wildlife, fire, use and user characteristics, wilderness benefits, visitor attitudes and behavior, and visitor management concepts and tools. Contact: National Wilderness Research Conference, College of Forestry and Natural Resources, Colorado State University, Fort Collins, CO 80523.