

What Would Charlie Do?

If that that tag line didn't get you over here, maybe the Dorr prize will.

Charlie Jacobi,
Visitor Use Specialist

Dorr prize???? Now that I have your undivided attention compare these three paired then and now photos. Then check out some of Acadia's Leave No Trace challenges and challenge yourself. Every correct answer to the source of the quotations or questions in blue earns a Dorrr Prize entry.

Are any of these impacts acceptable?

"Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world."

"...here we were
...taking people out
and... devastating
the wilderness. Bad camping, crapping all over..."

Difference?

"Barring love and war, few enterprises are undertaken with such abandon, or by such diverse individuals, or with so paradoxical a mixture of appetite and altruism, as that group of avocations known as outdoor recreation."

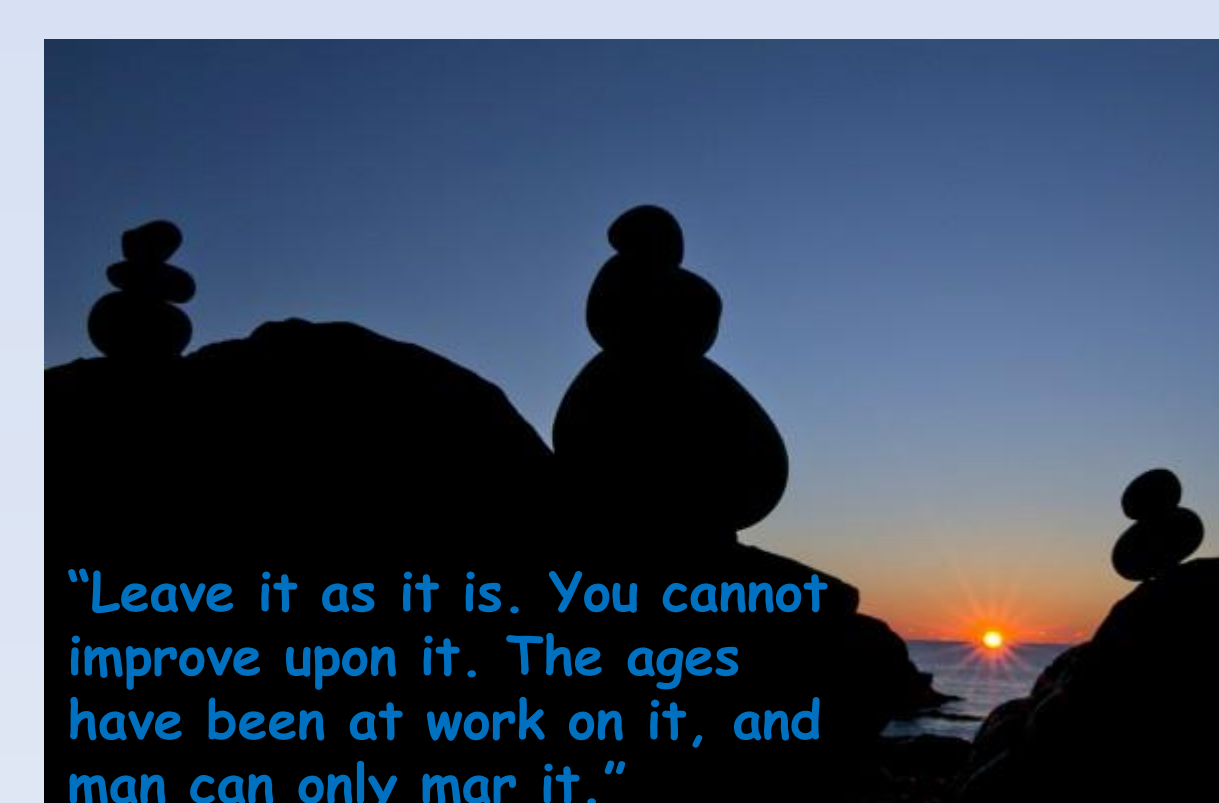

"We abuse the land because we see it as a commodity belonging to us. When we see the land as a community to which we belong, we may begin to use it with love and respect."

"Unless someone like you cares a whole awful lot, nothing's going to get better, it's not."

ACADIA NATIONAL PARK, Maine — Like a group of yogis who have found the ideal place to meditate, more than two dozen carefully balanced rocks populate a quiet cove just north of Otter Cliffs...chances are many will vanish as soon as the next storm hits at high tide...Until then, they'd probably welcome company... Bangor Daily News, March 2014.

"I must leave it as beautiful as I found it. Nothing must ever happen there that might detract in the slightest from what it now had."

Dorr Prize!!!!

You got this far. Now demonstrate your LNT erudition even further. Take the Black Box Adult Version LNT Quiz! Correct answers gain another entry in our drawing for the Dorrr Prize.