Celebrating 50 Years of the National Historic Preservation Act

SILVER CITY, IDAHO

History lovers of all ages and backgrounds are gearing up for the 50th anniversary of the passage of the National Historic Preservation Act (NHPA). The Act has transformed the face of communities from coast to coast as it established the legal framework and incentives to preserve historic buildings, landscapes, and archaeology.

Please join this milestone celebration and take a look back on 50 years of preservation success in Idaho. Events are planned throughout Idaho during May and cover topics related to Idaho's history, archaeology, architectural history, and historic preservation.

Stay up-to-date on all Idaho Archaeology & Historic Preservation Month activities by subscribing to our Facebook page, www.facebook.com/IDPPreservationMonth/events.

The Idaho State Historical Society is an extraordinary system of cultural and historic resources comprised of the Idaho State Historical Museum, State Archives, State Historic Preservation Office, and Historic Sites Program. We seek to inspire, enrich and engage all Idahoans by leading the state in preserving, sharing, and using history and cultural resources relevant to today to inform and influence the future.

Idaho Archaeology and Historic Preservation Month has been funded in part with federal funds from the US Department of the Interior's Bureau of Land Management, the Bureau of Reclamation, the National Park Service, the National Endowment for the Humanities, the Department of Agriculture's US Forest Service and the Department of Defense. However, the contents and opinions of presentations made during Idaho Archaeology and Historic Preservation Month do not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the Department of the Interior, the Department of Agriculture, or the Department of Defense.

Regulations of the US Department of the Interior strictly prohibit unlawful discrimination in programs on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, or handicap. Any person who believes he or she has been discriminated against by a recipient of federal assistance should write: Director, Equal Opportunity Program, US Department of the Interior, National Park Service, PO Box 37127, Washington DC 20013-7127.
